

Dr. Perrin was regularly awakened by clients at night, most often for good reason with an emergency, but sometimes not. We've developed the following opening sequence - the caller on the other end would change each time, but would be just as nonsensical, a la "Rockford Files".

	RING

RING

Dr. Perrin...	“Dr. Perrin? We just caught some baby skunks, and my dad wants to keep them. Can we bring them over to your place right now so you can take out their scent glands? Those scent glands, they’re already workin’ pretty good. Mom won’t let us in the house.

“Dr. Perrin? Dr. Perrin???”	Woof!
